Professional Experience

Duke-NUS Medical School, CoRE
Senior Executive, Marketing Communications & Stakeholder Engagement
May 2024 – Present

- Lead marketing communications and event management for 14 events annually, spanning conferences, roundtables, seminars and webinars, reaching up to 1,000 attendees across regulatory, academic and industry sectors globally.
- Run event operations end to end: registration and sign ups, VIP and speaker invitations and RSVPs, and vendor coordination (venue, AV, catering, printing) through to onsite delivery.
- Own the full campaign cycle per programme: audience outreach, 9 collateral pieces (flyers, banners, signage, decks, booklets, certificates, brochures), and coverage before and after each event across LinkedIn, Instagram, Facebook and the website.
- Write landing and event pages, weekly EDM outreach to 5,000 recipients, event reports, publications and social copy. Design and produce visual assets in house, reducing agency reliance and shortening turnaround.
- Manage website content and structure across events, programmes and publications, introducing new formats and usability improvements.
- Partner with faculty, education and global health teams on content, and report campaign performance to inform future programmes.

Fujifilm Business Innovation Singapore
Social Media & Content Marketing Executive, Brand & Communications
Jan 2023 – Oct 2023

- Owned all corporate social media channels, running the content calendar with monthly planning and quarterly forward previews (across 2 channels, to a combined audience of 38,000 followers).
- Wrote across the full corporate range: press releases, success stories, website articles, email campaigns, marketing collateral, executive thought leadership and internal comms.
- Tracked campaign performance and applied the findings to channel strategy and produce quality content that increases content engagement.
- Led PR and executive communications, including placing leadership features with media publications, and enforced brand governance.
- Directed internal videographers and designers plus external creative agencies to deliver campaign assets on schedule and on brand.

Singapore Polytechnic
Content / Learning Design Executive, Asynchronous Learning Design
Feb 2021 – Jan 2023

- Partnered with academic departments and subject matter experts to develop content for online learning programmes, translating technical material into clear, engaging formats for student audiences.
- Wrote, edited and art-directed multimedia content including video, animation, interactive articles and print collateral, managing production timelines across concurrent projects.
- Managed content publishing and updates on the institutional e-learning platform and webpage.
